Global partner

We are pleased to welcome Sarah Labriel back as one of TBC's global partners! Sarah grew up as a pastor's kid, living in many different regions of the US. She was drawn to missions as a young teen, going on her first mission trip at age 14. Over the years Sarah ministered in several Spanish-speaking countries of Central America. Sarah's life has not been easy, but the Lord has been faithful; He has guided Sarah and her family through many valleys. Sarah has seen God redeem her story over and over again, both for her benefit and for others'.

Sarah currently serves with Azmera, a member care ministry reaching out to women in ministry, mainly through retreats. Read about Azmera's goal below as well as Sarah's prayer requests.

At Azmera, our goal is to be a part of caring for, reigniting, and impacting cross-cultural global workers from various nations already in the harvest field, so that they can serve God and others to their fullest potential and remain faithful to their calling overseas, resulting in more people coming to a saving knowledge of Christ. We are made up of women, both on staff and volunteer members, who are dedicated to encouraging workers all over the globe.

We want to remind these women serving overseas that God loves and delights in them, so much so that tending to their hearts is just as vital as the work in which they are involved. Through ongoing care for their relationship with God and their families, we believe that these global workers will be in a better place to serve and flourish within the communities they are working.

Prayer Requests

New Role in 2026: I will have a new title in 2026—Development and Operations Manager—while still serving as a Retreat Specialist. I'm genuinely excited to step more fully into the areas where God has gifted me. Please pray for wisdom and discernment.

Support Team Building: Over the next three months, I'll be focusing on building my support team. Pray that I can connect deeply with people and faithfully encourage the Body of Christ to invest in what God is doing through Azmera and my role within it. I'm praying for 7 more financial partners at $150/month.

Personal Story & Ministry: Pray that God continues to redeem my story for His glory and my sanctification. Ask that He keeps bringing those widowed, divorced, singles, and single moms into my life so I can offer them the same comfort He has given me. Pray that I can walk with them as they process their stories and release any guilt or shame the enemy tries to bring.

Would YOU like to attend an Azmera retreat?

Sarah would love to share how you can be involved in loving and caring for global workers.

Send Sarah an email at sarah.azmera@gmail.com or talk to her at church!
